

Sintra Sofa

A study in sculptural softness, the Sintra Sofa embodies contemporary comfort through its fully upholstered, monolithic form. With its generous proportions, rounded edges, and seamless silhouette, Sintra offers a relaxed yet refined presence—perfect for open-plan living or minimalist interiors. Its deep seat and low profile invite effortless lounging, while the absence of visible legs replaced by a sleek timber run-through frame enhances its calm, grounded aesthetic. A modern classic designed for spaces that value quiet sophistication.
